Refund reason (choose one)

- Military Exemption – 100% Disabled American Veteran; Former Prisoner of War; Gold Star parent, widow, or widower; or Purple Heart. You must apply for the specialty plate or tab before submitting a refund request.
- Vehicle/Vessel was registered in another state or country after the Washington registration was purchased:
 - Attach a copy of the original out-of-state/country registration that lists the VIN/HIN and issue date.
- Renewal fees paid early, and the vehicle/vessel was sold or traded before the new registration period began. We must receive the completed request before the new registration period begins.
 - Send proof of sale, trade, donation, or lease-return that includes the VIN/HIN and date of sale/trade, and
 - Return the original, unused, and never-affixed tab with the application. Tabs that have been affixed to a license plate, paper, or any other surface do not qualify for a refund.
- Renewal fees paid early, and vehicle/vessel was destroyed/totaled before the new registration period began.
 - Attach proof of destruction/total loss that lists the VIN/HIN and date of loss/sale (e.g., insurance report, wrecker/scrap yard bill of sale, or a report of sale).
- Registration fees were paid in error after the vehicle was sold, traded, or destroyed:
 - Attach proof of sale/trade, donation, lease-return, or destruction/total loss that includes the VIN/HIN and date of sale.
- Non-resident military exempt from RTA/Sound Transit excise tax. We must receive the following:
 - Completed Non-Resident Military Affidavit for Exemption of Excise Tax form, TD-420-044, and
 - A copy of your current Military Orders showing dates of assignment to Washington state, and
 - A copy of your Leave and Earnings Statement (LES).
- Enrolled tribal member living on tribal land exempt from RTA/Sound Transit excise tax:
 - Attach a Vehicle/Vessel Excise Tax Exemption Affidavit for Enrolled Tribal Member Living in Indian Country form, TD-420-023.
- Other reason not listed above (attach a letter of explanation and include supporting documents).

Any person who makes a false statement to obtain a refund is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.
