Prearrangement Funeral Service Contract Guidelines

Listed below are the required items that must be addressed in all prearrangement funeral service contracts. These items are set forth in RCW 18.39.250(12) and WAC 308-49-150.

To receive approval of contract form and content:

- Drafts of proposed contracts must be submitted for review to the Funeral and Cemetery Licensing office at the Department of Licensing.
- In the event that modifications are necessary, changes should be incorporated before final printing.
- The final version of contracts must be approved before use.
- A copy of the contract in its final form must be filed with the Department of Licensing.

If, in the future, you decide to make changes to your contract, you must first obtain approval from the Department before using the contract.

RCW 18.39.250(12) requires that every prearrangement funeral service contract financed through a prearrangement funeral service trust shall contain language which:

- Informs the purchaser of the prearrangement funeral service trust and the amount to be deposited in the trust;
- Indicates if the contract is revocable or not;
- Specifies that a full refund of all monies paid on the contract will be made if the contract is cancelled within thirty calendar days of its signing;
- Specifies that, in the case of cancellation by a purchaser or beneficiary eligible to cancel under the contract or under this chapter, up to ten percent of the contract amount may be retained by the seller to cover the necessary expenses of selling and setting up the contract;
- Identifies the trust to be used and contains information as to how the trustees may be contacted.

WAC 308-49-150 requires that contracts should be written in language that can be easily understood by all parties and printed or typed in easily readable type size and style. Every contract shall contain the following information:

- Has blanks for the name of the purchaser and the name of the beneficiary;
- A description of the services and merchandise to be provided, if specific merchandise and services are to be furnished and a statement clearly setting forth whether the purchase price paid fully pays for such services and merchandise or if the purchase price is to be applied toward the cost of such services and merchandise when they are provided;
- The total purchase price to be paid under the contract and the manner and terms which will govern payment.

If a contract is to be funded through a prearrangement funeral service trust fund it shall also include the following information:

- That a prearrangement funeral service trust exists and of the amount to be deposited into the trust;
- Identification of the trust to be used and information as to how the trustees may be contacted;
- If the contract is revocable or not or if there are provisions to convert to an irrevocable status;
- That all monies paid are fully refundable if cancelled by the purchaser within thirty days of signing;
- In the case of cancellation by purchaser or beneficiary after thirty days of signing that up to ten percent of the contract may be retained by the seller. That all funds placed in trust plus net accruals are subject to refund;
- That reasonable fees as set forth by statute for the administration of the trust plus taxes paid or withheld shall be deducted from the interest, dividends, and increases that the trust may earn;
- That the board may terminate a contract if the establishment goes out of business, becomes insolvent or bankrupt, makes an assignment for the benefit of creditors, has its prearrangement funeral service certificate or registration revoked, or for any other reason is unable to fulfill the obligations under the contract. That in such event, or upon demand of the purchaser or beneficiary of the prearrangement funeral service contract the funeral establishment shall refund to the purchaser or beneficiary all monies deposited in trust and allocated to the contract unless otherwise ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction. That the purchaser or beneficiary may, in lieu of a refund, elect to transfer the prearrangement funeral service contract and all amounts in trust to another funeral establishment licensed by the board to enter into prearrangement funeral service contracts which will agree to endorse the contract and to be bound to the contract and to provide for the funeral merchandise or services.

If the contract is to be funded through insurance, the contract shall also contain language which:

- States the amount of insurance;
- Informs the purchaser of the name and address of the insurance company through which the insurance will be provided and the policy number.
