

Driver Training School Vehicle Inspection Report

You can use this form to record the annual inspections of the vehicles your business uses for traffic safety instruction. Check the boxes for items meeting the requirements. Explain any unchecked items in the comments area below.

Keep completed reports on file at your place of business.

School name		Location
Vehicle license plate number	Model year	Vehicle Identification Number (VIN)

Interior

- Fire extinguisher—Serviceable ABC Dry Chemical in trunk or securely mounted
- First aid kit—20-unit minimum
- Warning devices—Two reflective triangles (minimum 14") or two cones (minimum 18")
- Horn—Emit sound for at least 200 feet
- Seat belts—Two lap/shoulder belts for rear seats
- Drive mirrors—One left and one center or right
- Instructor mirror—Near center
- Instructor brake—Functional

Exterior

- Signage—Phrase: "Student driver," "Instructor car," or "Driving school" on top (lettering height: 2 1/2" minimum) and company name and phone number (lettering height: 1" minimum) readable at 100 feet
- Windshield—No excessive cracks or vision obstructions
- Windshield wipers—Good working order
- Tires—Tread above wear bars and no ply or cords exposed
- License plates—Readable, front and rear
- Headlights—Emit light revealing 150 feet ahead and not striking eyes of approaching drivers
- Tail lights—Emit red light
- License plate light—Emit white light
- Turn signals—Emit flashing red or amber light
- Hazard lights—Emit flashing amber light
- Brake lights—Emit red or amber light
- Reverse lights—Emit white light
- Fuel filler cap—Adequate seal

Mechanical

- Fluid levels—Adequate level of motor oil, coolant, power-steering fluid, and brake fluid
- No excessive leaks—Fuel, motor oil, coolant, or power-steering fluid, or brake fluid
- Brakes—Adequate to stop vehicle
- Belts—No excessive looseness or cracking
- Wiring—No obvious covering damage
- Steering—No excessive steering play
- Suspension—Shocks with no excessive bouncing or leaks
- Exhaust system—No excessive noise, smoke, or leaking gasses into occupant compartment

Comments

I certify under penalty of perjury under the law of Washington that the foregoing is true and correct.

Date and place

PRINT or TYPE Name of school owner

X

Signature