Frequently asked questions

Q. What is a company principal?

A. The individual who, in order to own or operate a private security guard company, must meet the minimum qualifications of three years experience or pass the state exam.

Q. How often are the exams given for principals and certified trainers?

A. They are scheduled within two to three weeks after we receive your application.

Q. Where will I take the exam?

A. The exams are scheduled at driver licensing offices around the state. When the exam is completed, it will be returned to this office to be scored. A letter with your score will be mailed to you approximately 10 days after you've taken your exam.

Q. How often can I take the exam?

A. There's no limit on the number of times you may take the exam as long as there's at least seven working days between them.

Q. How do I get rescheduled if I don't pass?

A. A reexam application will be mailed to you with your results. Complete and return the application with the $25 fee to be rescheduled.

Q. If I'm just working for myself and do not want to hire employees, do I still have to get a company license?

A. Yes, anyone who works as a private security guard must either be licensed as a company principal or as a security guard under another company.

Q. How do my employees get licensed?

A. Once your company is licensed, you can submit applications for your employees. They are required to complete eight hours of pre-assignment training from a licensed certified trainer. The certified trainer must sign the certification box on the front of the Security Guard Application.

Q. How do I become a certified trainer?

A. Once you are licensed, submit a certified trainer exam application and $25.

Q. May I have a certified trainer from another company give my employees the training?

A. Yes, provided the trainer is currently employed and holds a valid certified trainer's license.
